

Technician Boot Camp

BEING HELD

APRIL 14-16, 2026

AT THE

Larson Transportation
Research Building & In Field Training

201 Transportation Research Building

142 Sweet Birch Road, University Park, PA 16802

Purpose of this training is to improve the capacity of the newer CD Staff administering the field portion of the DGLVR Program to implement better projects at the County level.

To register for this training
Visit: dirtandgravelroads.org

INTENDED FOR

CD TECHS
MANAGING DGLVR
PROGRAM

DAY 1

- Classroom sessions on Project Planning
- Interactive field work on Road Diagnostics

DAY 2

- ESM Primer and Diagnostic Discussion and Dissection
- Active site work involving Road Drainage Improvements
- Surveying Basics– It's for more than just steams

DAY 3

Diagnostic wrap-up in field

Available resources for project estimating, site planning, on-site safety, and more

Meals and transportation to field sites provided by the Center for Dirt and Gravel Roads Studies

